

IT'S ALL ABOUT DOG POWER IN NORTHERN BRITISH COLUMBIA

Eager for a bit of winter play featuring man's best friend? Ready the sled, and a team of your very own Siberian huskies, in Northern BC. Situated just outside of Prince George, Dog Power Adventures promises canine-driven cruise control along well-tread trails during a multitude of outings that span the short-and-sweet to the wondrously in-depth. Pressed for time? The Two-Hour Trek will showcase the best of the region, while a Half-Day excursion offers four hours of face time with your new canine pals, plus tours of the trails before lunching next to a crackling campfire. Should you wish to bunk down for the night, the Bed & Breakfast Dog Sledding Adventure promises a cosy overnight, a hearty Musher's Breakfast, an eager team to power through the wilds and lunch provided on the trail. Can't get enough? Three- and five-day excursions will have you on a first name basis with the dogs, while the two-week Life of a Musher expedition combines home-cooked meals, campfires, country living and your own team of happy huskies for the duration. Family-owned and operated, Dog Power Adventures is all about taking it outside to bond with these amazing animals. You're bound to love it. These dogs live for it.
